

historically marginalized

Black and indigenous people, and people of color, who identify as women, LGBTQ+, under-resourced, and other intersectional identities.

generational wealth

Reparations, redistribution of resources, and removal of barriers, so that future generations have equitable access to and enjoyment of wealth.

holistic well-being

Physical, economic, social, emotional, spiritual, and psychological health

decision-making power

Communities most impacted are the ones making decisions, and they are ensuring equity at every stage of the decision-making process

land justice

Enabling people to have access to land, to be in mutuality with land, to restore the land, to tend the land, to heal the land (i.e. be custodians of the land) while allowing the land to facilitate our own healing and restoration.

human dignity

The inherent worth and value of every human being