Enabling people to have access to land, to be in mutuality with land, to restore the land, to tend the land, to heal the land (i.e. be custodians of the land) while allowing the land to facilitate our own healing and restoration.

Communities most impacted are the ones making decisions, and they are ensuring equity at every stage of the decision-making process.

Reparations, redistribution of resources, and removal of barriers, so that future generations have equitable access to and enjoyment of wealth.

The inherent worth and value of every human being

Black and indigenous people, and people of color, who identify as women, LGBTQ+, under-resourced, and other intersectional identities.

Decision-making power

Generational wealth

Holistic well-being

Human dignity